

I would like a "Do Not Call" list to be as stringent as possible. In fact, I would prefer that it include charities and political organizations in addition to the other telemarketers. My phone was ringing off the hook at the last election. Thank you.